

Talent has no boundaries. you know me...

Workforce diversity includes Alaskans with disabilities. I face challenges every day. One of them is cerebral palsy. But nothing slows me down. I've been working for Crowley Marine for 24 years. I'm currently the Mayor of St. Michael and also active in my village corporation.

Alaskans with disabilities don't want handouts; we want to be productive, contributing members of our communities.

For information about hiring qualified employees with disabilities, contact: Alaska Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, 800-478-2815, or Governor's Council on Disabilities & Special Education, 888-269-8990.
